SUMMER DISCOVERIES

PROSECCO

Prosecco, Extra Dry Spumante, Follador, Italy

£41.00

The Follador family is the pioneer of the method Charmat Spumanti Prosecco. Since the 15th century, the plot of vines have been cultivated on slopes located in the heart of the production area Prosecco DOCG, between the two historic capitals of Valdobbiadene and Conegliano. This unique and superb hilly terroir allows the grapes to ripen perfectly. The nose is rich, full with flowery nuances of almond and ripe fruits. The palate is fine with well integrated bubbles and harmonious with ripe green apple, peach and fresh almond aromas.

WHITE WINE

Albarino, Abadia De San Campio, Bodegas Terras Gauda, 2009, Spain

£39.00

Following the wine-growing revolution in Galicia that was triggered by the setting-up of the D.O. Rias Baixas designation of origin, Jose Maria Fonseca, the current chairman began to see the wine world more clearly and from his position on the board managed and supported the development of wine-growing and oenology courses, as well as a host of partnerships related to the art of wine-making. In 1991 with the winery committed to establishing its uniqueness, the first wine with albarino grapes Abadia de san campio was produced. The 2009 is very attractive with citrus, grapefruit, pineapple and mandarin flavours.

RED WINE

Syrah, Bodegas Luzon, 2006, Spain

£34.00

Bodegas Luzon dedicated to producing and marketing wines from the Jumilla Denomination of origin. Jumilla is situated in the south east Spain an area characterised by wide valleys and broad plains. The 2006 100% syrah shows an intense red purple color with violet rim. Aromas display powerful red fruits and floral notes. The palate has a good length with round sweet tannins.

SWEET WINE

Maury Prestige 15 Ans D'Age, Mas Amiel, France

£52.00

Located in the heart of the Agly valley near Maury, protected to the north by the Corbieres hills and to the south by the Pyrenees, the 170 hectares of Mas Amiel vines grow on black outcrops surrounded by white limestone cliffs. A blend of 90% of black grenache, 5% maccabeu and 5% carignan was used for the 15 year old Maury. Deep amber robe with strong copper tints. Intense aromas of fig jam and chocolate on the nose with highlights of cumin and virginia tobacco. On the palate this wine is powerful and changeable with hints of dried fig and velvety tannins that give way to an astonishing chocolaty crystallised orange finish.
