WINTER DISCOVERIES

CHAMPAGNE

Jacquesson, cuvée 732, Non Vintage, France

£70.00

Memmie Jacquesson founded the house of Jacquesson more than two centuries ago in 1798. Today Jacquesson limit their annual production to 350000 bottles allowing them to continue using handcrafted methods dedicated to the highest quality. The cuvée 732 is so-called because it is the 732nd cuvée made by the house since their centenary cuvée in 1898. The cuvée 732 was produced by an assemblage based on the 2004 harvest. It is made with 48% chardonnay, 32% pinot noir and 20% pinot meunier. It is a well balanced wine with good acidity and lovely flavours.

WHITE WINE

Bourgogne Blanc, Clos Saint Phillibert, Méo-Camuzet, 2006, France

£52.00

Méo-Camuzet is one of the undisputed star estates of burgundy. Jean-Nicholas Méo and Christian Fouriois now run the domaine and together produce some of the very best wine in the Côte d'Or. Thanks to its originality, this very generous wine avoids the generic characteristics of its appellation. Its rich and often tropical aromas, its freshness and mineral character are remarkable. Traditional, since the alcoholic fermentation takes place in casks with regular 'bâtonnages'. The fermentation is carried out slowly in order to favour the richness of the wine.

RED WINE

Zinfandel, Cline, 2007, California

£34.00

Fred Cline established Cline cellars in Oakley Contra Costa, California in 1982. This winery is now well known. Cline winery has become outstandingly good at the production of those rich, distinctive Rhône varietal wines and intense, flavour full Zinfandels. Winemaker Charlie Tsegeletos is consistently turning out excellent wines, vintage after vintage. 71% of the wine comes from Lodi with the balance from the sandy soil of Contra Costa. It spends 8 months in French oak. Zinfandel 2007 display a wide range of dark berry fruit with black cherry and raspberry, spice notes and a lasting finish of vanilla with soft tannins.

SWEET WINE

Jurançon V.T. Domaine Cauhapé, Henri Ramonteu 2004 France

£50.00

Henri Ramonteu makes dry and sweet wines from gros manseng and petit manseng respectively. He was one of a handful of celebrated producers who originally popularised dry Jurançon in the late 1980's. The grapes destined for the sweet vendange tardive cuvées are left hanging on the vine until November when they have become shrivelled and the sugars and acids have concentrated. The vendange tardive 2004 show some notes of honey, orange and quince on the nose. Lovely, fat and creamy palate, rounded yet fresh and grippy.
